

BEAVERTON POLICE DEPARTMENT

GENERAL ORDER

NUMBER: 10.01.01
SUBJECT: Organized Crime and Vice Control
EFFECTIVE: June 1, 2000
REVIEW: 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004

1. PURPOSE. To establish responsibility and procedures for the handling of organized crime and vice information and investigations.
2. RESPONSIBILITY. The responsibility for organized crime and vice investigations is assigned to the Criminal Investigation Division (CID). The CID Sergeant is responsible for assigning investigations involving vice and organized crime.
3. COMPLAINTS AND OTHER INFORMATION. All complaints and information involving vice and organized crime will be reported on a Beaverton Police Department Criminal Intelligence Report form and forwarded to the Intelligence Officer.
4. INVESTIGATIONS. Once sufficient information has been collected to substantiate the need for a complete vice and/or organized crime investigation, the Intelligence Officer shall notify the North Sector Captain and the CID Sergeant. The CID Sergeant will then assign a Detective or Detective(s) to conduct the investigation consistent with the Beaverton Police Department General Order and Policy manual pertaining to case management (G.O. 10.01.00). These types of investigations shall be conducted consistent with investigative methods utilized in other criminal investigations, with special attention to the confidentiality of this type of information.
5. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS. The Intelligence Officer will collect intelligence information on vice and organized crime in a manner conforming to the Oregon Administrative Rules adopted by the Oregon Department of Justice, and the Beaverton Police Department General Order and Policy Manual pertaining to criminal intelligence and confidential informants (G.O. 10.02.00 and 10.02.01). All information collected on vice and organized crime by the Intelligence Officer will be maintained and secured in a confidential file system.
